METRO ONE SIGNS NEW CONTRACT WITH ONE COMMUNICATIONS

PORTLAND, Oregon – May 29, 2007 – Metro One Telecommunications, Inc. (Nasdaq: INFO), a developer and provider of Enhanced Directory Assistance® (EDA) and other enhanced telecom services, today announced that it has entered into a contract to provide EDA and other services to subscribers of One Communications, the largest privately held US based competitive local exchange carrier (CLEC).

“Metro One is truly excited to partner with the largest privately held CLEC in the country,” said Gary E. Henry, president and chief executive officer of Metro One Telecommunications. “We believe our EDA services are a great fit for One Communications and the relationship gives Metro One enormous visibility within the CLEC sector. Additionally, because our call centers are located in areas that mesh well with One Communications’ footprint, our robust infrastructure will help provide their customers with the highest levels of satisfaction and maintain pace with One Communications rapid growth.”

“Metro One has established itself as a leader in Enhanced Directory Assistance and we are looking forward to a productive partnership,” said Rick Pigeon, vice president, Network Planning at One Communications. “They demonstrated their commitment to outstanding service and offered us the best product combination of responsiveness and value, which support our ability to effectively service our customers.”
