METRO ONE SIGNS ENHANCED DIRECTORY ASSISTANCE CONTRACT WITH PCS1

PORTLAND, Oregon – June 19, 2007 – Metro One Telecommunications, Inc. (Nasdaq: INFO), a developer and provider of Enhanced Directory Assistance® (“EDA”) and other enhanced telecom services, today announced that it has entered into a multi-year contract to provide EDA and other services to subscribers of PCS1. PCS1 is a 58-year old full service telecommunications company, providing small and medium-sized business customers in California with high-quality, Centrex-based, local and long distance services, voice messaging and ISDN/DSL Internet access.

“We are pleased to be able to work with PCS1 and offer increased value to their product portfolio,” said Gary E. Henry, President and Chief Executive Officer of Metro One Telecommunications. “PCS1’s has a long and distinguished history of providing telecommunications service offerings in California to small and medium sized businesses. Partnering with Metro One for directory assistance services will allow the PCS1 customer base to enjoy the best-in-class directory assistance services normally available only to larger companies.”

“Metro One brings the same quality of service to our directory assistance product offering that our customers have come to expect from us,” said Subash Khurana, President of PCS1. “Directory Assistance is an important function within our integrated service offering, especially as we continue to expand our customer base. We are especially pleased to have Metro One as our partner for this critical component of our business.”
